

From the oldest culture on earth comes the freshest and funniest standup comedy around. It's the all-original Aboriginal Comedy Allstars showcase - featuring four of the brightest comedy stars under the Milky Way. It doesn't get more Aussie than this!

The Aboriginal Comedy Allstars is cheeky, playful, irreverent, and hilarious. An utterly unique comedy experience – great, big belly laughs from the heart of the wide, brown land.

Welcome to comedy, everyone.

Matt Ford is the latest in a squad of exciting young talents rapidly establishing themselves as the next generation of Australian standup, Matt has worked with the likes of Doug Stanhope, Tom Gleeson, and Tom Ballard.

Shiralee Hood has survived the Canberra bush fires, lived next to the Tent Embassy's sacred fire outside Parliament House in Canberra and had her front teeth knocked out swinging on a Hill's Hoist.

Kevin Kropinyeri is Australia's premier Aboriginal comedy star, a high energy whirlwind that will have you holding your sides laughing, as he shares tales of growing up, marriage and the particular, absurd challenges of life as an Aboriginal Australian family man.

Dane Simpson's cheeky online sketches such as "Chips and Devon" are making this bright new talent a bit of a Facebook favourite, gaining more than 50 thousand likes. Dane has been running a regular comedy club in his hometown of Wagga Wagga since 2015.

Standup comedy often contains strong language and adult concepts.
