DANIEL KOEK
in Concert

CANCELLED

PRESS RELEASE

DRK Productions in association with the Barossa Arts Convention Centre wish to advise that the Daniel Koek in Concert, which is scheduled for 11 June 2013, will be postponed to a later date.

Daniel has been offered a part in the West End Production of Les Miserable, which is due to open on June 17, with an intensive rehearsal process in London in the lead up to the opening.

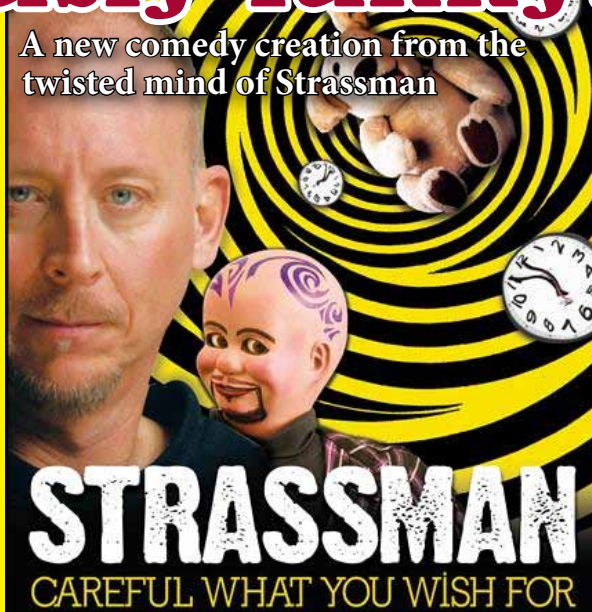

"It is with great regret that I have to cancel my concert as I was very much looking forward to coming home to perform in June. However I am in close discussion with the theatre and will definitely be looking to find a date in 2014." Daniel said.

Riotously funny!

Chuck and Ted E Bare are back, transformed by a strange 'wish' into bizzaro-alternate selves. The road home may be scary for Strassman... but an hilarious scream for us!

Barossa Arts & Convention Centre Onstage E-News

Edition 2-April 2013

One of the most explosive and popular movies has burst onto the live stage as a fully-fledged musical! When teenager Ren and his Mum relocate from Chicago to a small rural town, he is not prepared for the rigorous local laws. Years ago, following a night of partying at a dance, a car accident claimed the lives of four local teens including the son of a local minister, Shaw Moore. In a misguided attempt to honour the victims, the reverend pushed through a town ordinance banning dancing and in the process has kept alive a memory that can only foster pain. At the emotional heart of FOOTLOOSE is a boy longing for the father who walked out on him and a man aching for the son he lost. Ultimately Rev. Moore realises that only through placing trust in our young people can they become truly trustworthy. FOOTLOOSE is propelled by the rock'n rhythm of its Oscar nominated top 40 score, the soundtrack album having hit number 1 on the Billboard Charts.
