THE TEN SOPRANOS Thursday 27 February 7.30pm

The Ten Sopranos are a combination of classical and contemporary singers who deliver a varied repertoire of Operatic favourites and well chosen popular songs, in what many consider to be a spine-tingling fashion...

The vocal magic of this act is setting the nation on fire, stealing the hearts and souls of the Australian public wherever they appear on stage, with a mesmerising vocal presentation unrivalled in today's world of entertainment.

While John Denver's "Aye Calypso" and Peter Allen's "Don't Cry Out Loud". Are "Re-arranged" and deliver a haunting and emotional experience through the sensitive vocal treatments. Not a dry eye in the house after the haunting rendition of Oh Danny Boy.

The Ten Sopranos feature award winning lead vocalist, Penny Pavlakis, who has worked with the biggest names in the world including Secret Garden, Baz Luhrman, Tommy Tycho, Dame Joan Sutherland, and Richard Bonyngé to name a few and has aced major singing competitions in the world in both classical and contemporary music including International star-search USA and is referred to by her peers as "The Singers' Singer".

A former principle artist with Opera Australia and with over 10,000 performances on major world stages

she brings to this act undoubted star power that few can match. The Ten Sopranos will simply mesmerise you through the artistry of the magnificent voices of ten wonderfully gifted singers. With a best selling CD and DVD release The Ten Sopranos are an act once seen never forgotten
